

CHARGE COX WITH TRYING TO GET DRAFT EXEMPTION

Said to Have Tried to Get Off Son of E. C. Scripps

BARUCH PUTS $25,000 IN MOVING PICTURE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Charges that Governor Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, urged draft exemption for one of the two sons of E. C. Scripps, head of a chain of newspapers and that government employees went to San Francisco at public expense at the time of the Democratic national convention were inquired into today by the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures.

Robert P. Scripps, one of the two brothers mentioned in the draft exemption charges, told the committee that he had recently published reports he knew nothing of any interest shown by Governor Cox in behalf of himself or his brother during the operation of the draft.

He acknowledged that the Newspaper Enterprise Association, which he said was an "allied organization" of the United Press news service in which he asserted his father owned the majority stock, had sent out Cox propaganda sheets along with its news matter to seventy newspapers.

Was Purely Public Interest. The interest shown by himself as editor of twenty-one Scripps newspapers and by his family in bringing about Governor Cox's election, he said, was purely "public interest."

"The inquiry into alleged travel at government expense of federal employees to San Francisco will be pursued by the committee on the basis of the information received today, the committee calling for records from the departments of justice and agriculture to show what employees had gone to the Pacific Coast city about the time of the Democratic convention and whether expenses paid by the government. Several vouchers showing such trips were examined in detail at today's session and Chairman Kenyon indicated that all departments of government might be called for information of this character.

"You know of any trips by officials of other departments, the navy for instance?" the chairman asked Don C. Fess, an employee of the department of justice who had presented vouchers of Frank K. Nebeker and R. P. Stewart, assistant attorney general, E. J. Hoover, assistant to the attorney general, George M. Montrose, an examiner of titles, whose expenses show he had traveled "with the attorney general."

"Were there any official meetings held on battleships?" Senator Kenyon continued, and the witness answered that he did not know.

Fees were directed to supply by Saturday morning a list of all employees of the department of justice who had turned in vouchers covering trips to San Francisco during the convention period and also any voucher submitted by Attorney General Palmer himself. Previously vouchers dealing with the San Francisco trip of Floyd R. Harrison, assistant to Secretary Meredith of the department of agriculture had been obtained from Almorco of the department of justice, a disbursing chief of that department.

Baruch Advances $25,000. From Harry Levy, a New York motion producer, the committee learned that B. M. Baruch had advanced $25,000 to date to cover production of the motion picture "Uncle Sam of Freedom Ridge" which has been mentioned several times in the hearings on Democratic campaign material. The total cost of the production would be $60,000, he said.

"Mr. Baruch contributed his money to a business enterprise which he entered because of his interest in the league of nations," asked Senator Reed.

"That is about it," said Levy. Another phase of alleged federal government political activities taken up by the committee was charges that postmasters and other officials had been solicited for funds by the Democratic National committee.

Loren C. Talbot, who described himself of a letter writer for the committee denied use of any special form of letter for postmasters.

"If they got letters, it was just as other Democrats got them," he said, and added that because of postal regulations, letters of solicitation addressed to federal officers had been marked for delivery at home addresses.

Talbot also denied that a list for the 250,000 or 300,000 letters sent out had been obtained from liberty loan contributors as recorded with the government. The maximum sum asked in any letter was $1,000, he said and he thought about $200,000 had been subscribed as a result of this solicitation.

Investigate Federal Publications. The committee's guns also were brought to bear during the

PROFITEERING BY GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE STOPPED

Hoover Says That Depositors Should be Paid More Interest

BELIEVES SHOULD REORGANIZE METHOD

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Herbert Hoover, who testified here today before the senate committee on reconstruction declared he believed the aggregate of national savings would be stimulated if the government stopped profiteering and paid "something like an adequate rate of interest" to depositors.

Reports showed, he said, that profits obtained by the government in 1918 chiefly from re-deposit of post savings bank funds in banks at 2 1/2 per cent interest were $1,135,000, while, he added, examination of any annual postal saving bank report would show that depositors did not receive more than one per cent interest.

"If a complete balance sheet were made from the beginning," he said, "the return of the government as indicated by the profits during 1918 on postal saving bank deposits probably would represent at least 100 per cent profit per annum on any capital invested by the government in supporting the scheme in its early stages, and any capital extension that has been necessary in the postoffice department. Such an operation in private banks would be regarded by the public demand would require investigation by the attorney general. The depositors are the poorest and least wise of the community and deserve special care."

Should Reorganize Method. Mr. Hoover declared that it "would seem only justice," if the whole method of payment of interest should be reorganized so to approximately distribute the profits back to the depositors. He said postal savings banks were established for the prime purpose of enlarging the area of national savings. He asserted that stimulation to savings was not interest return but merely the inducement of safety.

"The real question at issue," he said, "appears to me to be not only justice to depositors but also whether the aggregate of national savings can be increased by offering a larger return on postal savings deposits, whether more savings can be pulled out of stockpiles, waste and luxuries and 'wild cats.' Every dollar so saved is a contribution to national welfare."

While Mr. Hoover said he had no doubt of the validity of the principle that the government thru the postal savings banks, should not compete with mutual and other savings banks, he said the first thing that should be done is to pay interest at the rate of one half per cent quarterly on average deposits.

"This," he added, "is only a matter of justice and is application of the law at the rate of 2 per cent per annum, not 1 per cent as at present."

Mrs. Hoover said he preferred establishment of some institution modeled after the farm loan bank rather than have mortgages on new construction exempted from the income tax. He said he thought the people would be willing to submit to government direction in reconstruction problems "if it took the form of a campaign of education," with cooperation abroad, he said, he expected a slackening of exports and consequent relieving of domestic conditions.

APPOINTS FORMER NEWSPAPER EDITOR

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 23.—Governor Lowden today appointed H. O. Crews, former managing editor of the Springfield News-Record as superintendent of department reports in the state department of finance to succeed A. T. Spivey of East St. Louis.

day as charges that federal publications had been used for Democratic political propaganda purposes.

P. P. Claxton, head of the federal bureau of education insisted that the bureau's semi-monthly paper School Life had been conducted in a non-partisan spirit under his administration. He produced copies to show that both Republican and Democratic leaders had been quoted on educational questions. He declared, however, that articles appearing in School Service, a larger publication inherited by his bureau from the former committee on public information and since suspended for lack of funds, were apparently intended to support the league of nations ideas, but said the bureau was not directly in control of the paper at the time.

Before calling any witnesses to the stand today the committee decided to order William Barnes, Jr., New York, to produce subscription lists and other papers connected with publication of his book Republicanism in 1920.

He had protested that this was a private enterprise, not connected with campaign financing but was overruled. Before he left the committee room, Barnes obtained from his office at Albany a report showing that the total gross returns on subscriptions for the book was $73,675 of which the solicitor who put thru the business was to get from 50 to 55 per cent as commission.

Edgar Smith of East St. Louis and Lee Cunningham came up from Glasgow Thursday.

LEN SMALL ISSUES STATEMENT TO PARTY

Asks Factions to Unite to Prevent Democratic Victory—Asks Both Committees to Work Together for Success.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 23.—Thanking the "rank and file" of my party for the gracious honor they have conferred upon me by nominating me as their candidate for governor," Len Small, Republican, today called upon the warring factions in the party to forget their strife lest "we lose this great Republican state."

With this warning, Mr. Small also announced C. R. Miller of Kankakee, as his campaign manager. His statement was in part as follows: "Now that the primary is over I urge all the Republicans of Illinois to get together in a united effort to place our state in the front rank at the November election."

"In the presence of our Democratic opponents, who are struggling for political existence, this is not time for good Republicans to bicker or quarrel over the question of leadership. It could easily happen that while we engaged in strife among ourselves, we might lose this great Republican state, the birthplace of our party, and the loss of Illinois might lose the presidency."

"With these possibilities in view let us join together to give to Harding and Coolidge and to our state Republican ticket the greatest vote ever given our party in this Republican stronghold."

"In view of the uncertainty as to the legal status of both the old and new state central committees, I urge the members of both committees to function as one body in this campaign. As there is no time to lose, I am inaugurating an active campaign, not only for myself but also in behalf of every candidate on the national state and county tickets."

"At the outset I urge all Republicans of past factional affiliations to join in a spirit of harmony and good will for the success of our party, which means the welfare of our country."

LORD MAYOR OF CORK SOMEWHAT LESS EXHAUSTED

Suffering from Pains in the Head, But is Still Conscious

IN CASE OF DEATH TO BE BURIED IN CORK

LONDON, Sept. 23.—(By The Associated Press).—"The lord mayor of Cork is somewhat less exhausted this afternoon," says the bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League to night, "the pains in his head, from which he has been suffering for two days, have abated. He is still conscious."

At a dinner given this evening by the Bishops of Cloyne, Southwark and Portsmouth to Archbishop Mannix, the archbishop, speaking of Lord Mayor MacSwiney said he had never read of anything more callous than the alternative made to the nobleman dying in Brixton prison that he should give a guarantee in exchange for his life that murders, for which he was not responsible, should cease.

Father Dominic, the mayor's chaplain, said after a visit to the prisoner's bedside:

"His cheeks and temples are sunken and his body is badly emaciated. He has had an almost continued headache for ten days, but his mind is always clear. It is not true that the prisoner daily reads the newspapers—he reads for a few minutes at a time, but the paper is always held by a nurse. It is also incorrect to say that MacSwiney shaves himself; he is shaved every two or three days by a warden."

Father Dominic said that in the event of Mr. MacSwiney's death he would be buried in that portion of the Cork cemetery allotted to "the victims of the English," alongside the grave of his predecessor, Lord Mayor MacCurtain.

Anti-Saloon League "Buck Passers."

Launching in his speech Mr. Coler levelled a bitter attack on the mass of dry workers, particularly those associated with the Anti-Saloon League, saying they were "buck passers" and had not forced the leaders of either of the two major parties to take a stand on prohibition laws.

As for federal enforcement of prohibition the speaker demanded that "something be done right now." There was no reason for quibbling, he added because everybody knows liquor can be bought at most places and at most any time if you've got the right look in your eyes.

"If the prohibition enforcement officials don't take hold of this situation quickly," Mr. Coler continued, "there'll be a worse scandal than this administration goes out than there was in the old whiskey ring 25 years ago."

Could Round Up Officials.

"The prohibition commissioner, if he wanted to, could take one or two men and could round up senators, governors, federal officials and scores of others for violation of the liquor laws. New York could be cleaned up in sixty days. But the department of justice and Mr. Kramer's bureau and the other government departments have got to work together."

As it is everybody's ducked. The Anti-Saloon League has ducked. Even Cox and Harding have ducked—except when needed and that's not a satisfactory way to get assurances."

BOMB EXPLOSION IS STILL MYSTERY

Identify Tag on Dead Horse—Receive Warning That Grand Central Station Will Be Blown Up.

New York, Sept. 23.—After a week had passed without investigators being able to solve the mystery of the Wall Street explosion, they were presented today with another mystery—who placed a package of dynamite in the Reid Avenue Elevated Station in Brooklyn this morning?

The package was found by a policeman doing strike duty on the Fulton street line which is operated by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company.

He soaked it in a bucket of water and then carried it to fire headquarters in Brooklyn. Later it was taken to a laboratory in Manhattan for analysis.

Identify Tag on Horse.

Meanwhile detectives investigating the Wall Street explosion reported that thru the health department they had been able to identify the tag found near the horse attached to the death car, which is believed to have been the center of the blast.

This tag, it was learned, had been issued in 1918 to the Reid Avenue Elevated Station, to certify that one of its horses was not afflicted with glanders, but since then the horse had been sold three times. The name of the latest owner, if known, was not made public.

More Bomb Scares.

Meanwhile in addition to the discovery of the bomb at the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Station, New York and vicinity were subjected to more bomb scares today.

An anonymous warning that the Grand Central Station would be blown up at 2 p. m., caused detectives to be rushed to the terminal and also to the Pennsylvania Station and the post office. Nothing happened.

The grand jury investigating the explosion of last Thursday continued today to hear witnesses.

Samuel Darley of the Durbin neighborhood was among the visitors in the city yesterday.

DRY WORKERS ARE "BUCK PASSERS" SAYS BIRD COLER

New York Official Says All Must Work Together

SAYS EVERYBODY HAS DUCKED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Prohibition enforcement officials, the New York branch of the Anti-Saloon League and its superintendent William H. Anderson shared alike a vitriolic attack made today by Bird S. Coler, New York commissioner of public welfare in a speech before the international congress against alcoholism.

Mr. Coler's prepared address also censured by officers of the congress to eliminate personalities, charged "open violation" of prohibition laws and accused Mr. Anderson of attempting to incite race and religious hatred. Prohibition Commissioner Kramer, answered the attack on his bureau personally. Mr. Anderson who was absent, replied in a formal statement which he accused Mr. Coler of injecting "Tammany politics" into an international meeting.

Position on Liquor Question

To one of the local newspapers' question on prohibition, Governor Cox also reiterated his position, saying:

"No liquor organization has ever donated a dollar to any of my campaign to my knowledge, nor have I ever owned a share of stock in any brewery. I suggest that this question be asked of the reactionary candidate."

Governor Cox challenged the newspapers to "get a single direct answer on any subject" from Senator Harding, his Republican opponent.

"He has been definite," the governor continued, "and he has been consistent on one thing only, his championship of the cause of big business and reaction, and his 'deference and devotion' to the senatorial oligarchy."

"When a political committee endeavors to kill the news, when it dares not meet the issue on which its candidate wobbles from day to day, when it seeks to secure the presidency by use of a huge corporation fund, it is time for the people to think seriously."

G. A. R. INCREASES PER CAPITA TAX

Raise Rate from Three and One-half to Ten Cents—Change Ritual to Read "One Country, One Language and One Flag."

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 23.—The annual per capita tax of the Grand Army of the Republic late today was increased from three and one-half to ten cents by the delegates to the annual encampment in session here. A change in the ritual of the organization to read "one country, one language and one flag" instead of "one country and one flag" also voted.

Extended debate on the important questions before the organization today caused election of officers and selection of the next encampment city to be carried over until the final business session tomorrow morning. At the close of this session the encampment will officially end. The change in the per capita tax was recommended when it was pointed out that the membership today was only one-third what it was when the lower figure was adopted in 1890.

The delegates also voted to change the constitution to permit Civil war veterans who live in communities where there are no posts of the organization to become members at large of the organization.

The woman's auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans today elected Mrs. Ida M. Patterson, Rockford, Illinois, representative of the national council of women.

IRISH PROBLEM IS NOT QUESTION FOR OFFICIAL AMERICA

Senator Harding Set Forth His Views Thursday

WOULD RATHER F

CHARGE COX WITH TRYING TO GET DRAFT EXEMPTION

Said to Have Tried to Get Off Son of E. C. Scripps

BARUCH PUTS $25,000 IN MOVING PICTURE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Charles E. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, urged draft exemption for one of the two sons of E. C. Scripps, head of a chain of newspapers and that government employees went to San Francisco at public expense at the time of the Democratic national convention was inquired into today by the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures.

Robert P. Scripps, one of the two brothers mentioned in the draft exemption charges, told the committee that beyond recently published reports he knew nothing of any interest shown by Governor Cox in behalf of himself or his brother during the operation of the draft.

He acknowledged that the Newspaper Enterprise Association, which he said was an "allied organization" of the United Press news service in which he asserted his father owned the majority stock, had sent out Cox propaganda sheets along with its news matter to seventy newspapers.

Was Purely Public Interest.

The interest shown by himself as editor of twenty-one Scripps newspapers and by his family in bringing about Governor Cox's election, he said was purely "public interest."

"The inquiry into alleged travel at government expense of federal employees to San Francisco will be pursued by the committee on the basis of the information received today, the committee calling for records from the departments of justice and agriculture to show what employees had gone to the Pacific Coast city about the time of the Democratic convention and had their expenses paid by the government. Several vouchers showing such trips were examined in detail at today's session and Chairman Kenyon indicated that all departments of government might be called for information of this character.

"Do you know of any trips by officials of other departments to the navy for instance?" the chairman asked Don C. Fess, an employee of the department of justice who had presented vouchers of Frank K. Nebeker and R. P. Stewart, assistant attorney general, E. J. Hoover, assistant to the attorney general, George M. Montrose, an examiner of titles whose expenses show he had traveled "with the attorney general."

"Were there any official meetings held on battleships?" Senator Kenyon continued, and the witness answered that he did not know.

Fees were directed to supply by Saturday morning a list of all employees of the department of justice who had turned in vouchers covering trips to San Francisco during the convention period and also any voucher submitted by Attorney General Palmer himself. Previously vouchers dealing with the San Francisco trip of Floyd R. Harrison, assistant to Secretary Meredith on the department of agriculture had been obtained from Almoner P. Seapone, a disbursing chief of that department.

Baruch Advances $25,000.

From Harry Levy, a New York motion picture producer, the committee learned that B. M. Baruch had advanced $25,000 to date to cover production of the motion picture "The Sam of Freedom's Ridge" which had been mentioned several times in the hearings as Democratic campaign material. The total cost of the production would be $60,000, he said.

"Mr. Baruch contributed his money to a business enterprise which he entered because of his interest in the league of nations," asked Senator Reed.

"That is about it," said Levy.

Another phase of alleged federal government political activities taken up was that involving charges that postmasters and other officials had been solicited for funds by the Democratic National committee.

Loren C. Talbot, who described himself of a letter writer for the committee denied use of any special form of letter for postmasters.

"If they got letters, it was just as other Democrats got them," he said, and added that because of postal regulations, letters of solicitation addressed to federal officials had been marked for delivery at home addresses.

Talbot also denied that a list for the 250,000 or 300,000 letters sent out had been obtained from liberty loan contributors as recorded with the government. The maximum sum asked in any letter was $1,000, he said and he thought about $200,000 had been solicited as a result of this solicitation.

PROFITEERING BY GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE STOPPED

Hoover Says That Depositors Should be Paid More Interest

BELIEVES SHOULD REORGANIZE METHOD

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Herbert Hoover, who testified today before the senate committee on reconstruction declared he believed the aggregate of national savings would be stimulated if the government stopped profiteering and paid "something like an adequate rate of interest" to depositors.

Reports showed, he said, that profits obtained by the government in 1918 chiefly from re-deposit of post savings bank funds in banks at 2 1/2 per cent interest were $1,135,000, while, he added, examination of any annual postal savings bank report would show that depositors did not receive more than one per cent interest.

"If a complete balance sheet were made from the beginning," he said, "the return of the government as indicated by the profits during 1918 on postal savings bank deposits probably would represent at least 100 per cent profit per annum on any capital invested by the government in supporting the scheme in its early stages, or any capital extension that has been necessary in the postoffice department. Such an operation in private banks would be signified by the term 'profiteering' and a public demand would require investigation by the attorney general. The depositors are the poorest and least wise of the community and deserve special care."

Should Reorganize Method.

Mr. Hoover declared that if "would seem only justice," if the whole method of payment of interest should be reorganized so as to approximately distribute the profits back to the depositors. He said postal savings banks were established for the prime purpose of enlarging the area of national savings. He asserted the stimulation of savings was not interest return but merely the inducement of safety.

"The real question at issue," he said, "appears to me to be not only justice to depositors but also whether the aggregate of national savings can be increased by offering a larger return on postal savings deposits, whether more savings can be pulled out of stockpiles, waste and luxuries and 'wild cats.' Every dollar so saved is a contribution to national welfare."

While Mr. Hoover said he had no doubt of the validity of the principle that the government thru the postal savings banks, should not compete with mutual and other savings banks, he said the first thing that should be done is to pay interest at the rate of one half per cent quarterly on average deposits.

"This," he added, "is only a matter of justice and is application of the law at the rate of 2 per cent per annum, not 1 per cent as at present."

Mrs. Hoover said he preferred establishment of some institution modeled after the farm loan bank rather than have mortgages on new construction exempted from the income tax. He said he would like to submit to government direction in reconstruction problems "if it took the form of a campaign of education," with recuperation abroad, he said, he expected a slackening of exports and consequent relieving of domestic conditions.

APPOINTS FORMER NEWSPAPER EDITOR

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 23.—Governor Lowden today appointed H. O. Crews, former managing editor of the Springfield News-Record as superintendent of department reports in the state department of finance to succeed A. T. Spivey of East St. Louis.

day as charges that federal publications had been used for Democratic political propaganda purposes.

P. P. Claxton, head of the federal bureau of education insisted that the bureau's semi-monthly paper School Life had been conducted in a non-partisan spirit under his administration. He produced copies to show that both Republican and Democratic leaders had been quoted on educational questions. He declared, however, that articles appearing in School Service, a larger publication inherited by his bureau from the former committee on public information and since suspended for lack of funds, were apparently intended to support the league of nations idea, but said the bureau was not directly in control of the paper at the time.

Before calling any witnesses to the stand today the committee decided to order William Barnes, Jr., New York, to produce subscription lists and other papers connected with publication of his book Republicanism in 1920.

He had protested that this was a private enterprise, not connected with campaign financing but was overruled. Before he left the committee room, Barnes obtained from his office at Albany a report showing that the total gross returns on subscriptions for the book was $73,675 of which the solicitor who put thru the business was to get from 50 to 55 per cent as commission.

LEN SMALL ISSUES STATEMENT TO PARTY

Asks Factions to Unite to Prevent Democratic Victory—Asks Both Committees to Work Together for Success.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 23.—Thinking the "rank and file" of my party for the gracious honor they have conferred upon me by nominating me as their candidate for governor," Len Small Republican, today called upon the warring factions in the party to forget their strife lest "we lose this great Republican state."

With this warning Mr. Small also announced C. R. Miller of Kankakee, as his campaign manager. His statement was in part as follows: "Now that the primary is over I urge all the Republicans of Illinois to get together in an united effort to place our state in the front rank at the November election.

"In the presence of our Democratic opponents, who are struggling for political existence, this is not time for good Republicans to bicker or quarrel over the question of leaders. It could easily happen that while we are engaged in strife among ourselves, we might lose this great Republican state, the birthplace of our party, and the loss of Illinois might lose the presidency.

"With these possibilities in view let us join together to give to Harding and Coolidge and to our state Republican ticket the greatest vote ever given our party in this Republican stronghold.

"In view of the uncertainty as to the legal status of both the old and new state central committees, I urge the members of both committees to function as one body in this campaign. As there is no time to lose I am inaugurating an active campaign, not only for myself but also in behalf of every candidate on the national state and county tickets.

"At the outset I urge all Republicans of past factional affiliations to join in a spirit of harmony and good will for the success of our party, which means the welfare of our country."

LORD MAYOR OF CORK SOMEWHAT LESS EXHAUSTED

Suffering from Pains in the Head, But is Still Conscious

IN CASE OF DEATH TO BE BURIED IN CORK

LONDON, Sept. 23.—(By The Associated Press).—The lord mayor of Cork is somewhat less exhausted this afternoon," says the bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League to night, "the pains in his head, from which he has been suffering for two days, have abated. He is still conscious."

At a dinner given this evening by the Bishops of Cloyne, Southwark and Portsmouth to Archbishop Mannix, the archbishop, speaking of Lord Mayor MacSwiney said he had never read of anything more callous than the alternative made to the nobleman dying in Brixton prison that he should give a guarantee in exchange for his life that murders, for which he was not responsible, should cease.

Father Dominic, the mayor's chaplain, said after a visit to the prisoner's bedside:

"His cheeks and temples are sunken and his body is badly emaciated. He has had an almost continued headache for ten days, but his mind is always clear. It is not true that the prisoner reads the newspapers—he reads for a few minutes at a time, but the paper is always held by a nurse. It is also incorrect to say that MacSwiney shaves himself; he is shaved every two or three days by a warden."

Father Dominic said that in the event of Mr. MacSwiney's death he would be buried in that portion of the Cork cemetery allotted to "the victims of the English," alongside the grave of his predecessor, Lord Mayor MacCurtain.

POLISH COUNTER PROPOSALS TO BE PRESENTED FRIDAY

Polish Delegates Feel That Peace is a Long Way Off

SOVIET COUNTER OFFENSIVE UNDER WAY

RIGA, Sept. 23.—(By The Associated Press).—M. Dombksi, head of the Polish peace delegation said today that the Polish counter proposals would be presented at the next session of the conference, which it is expected will be held Friday.

The feeling is growing among some of the Polish delegates that peace is a long way off. The chief stumbling block is the military situation with the Pilsudski faction at Warsaw reported as insisting upon the Baranovich line as the armistice line.

Another factor in the complicated situation is the linking up of the east Galician question with Ukrainian representation on the Soviet delegation. The Soviet Ukrainians, while accepting the principle of self-determination generally, are said to insist upon their rights in eastern Galicia. It is well known that the Poles will not even discuss the giving up of East Galicia.

While neither the Polish nor the Soviet communiques mention the starting of a Soviet counter-offensive, an entente observer says there is a counter-offensive actually underway with Siberian troops, large numbers of which are at the front.

DRY WORKERS ARE "BUCK PASSERS" SAYS BIRD COLER

New York Official Says All Must Work Together

SAYS EVERYBODY HAS DUCKED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Prohibition enforcement officials, the New York branch of the Anti-Saloon League and its superintendent William H. Anderson shared alike a vitriolic attack made today by Bird S. Coler, New York commissioner of public welfare in a speech before the international congress against alcoholism.

Mr. Coler's prepared address, also censured by officers of the congress to eliminate personalities, charged "open violation" of prohibition laws and accused Mr. Anderson of attempting to incite race and religious hatred.

Prohibition Commissioner Kramer, answered the attack on his bureau personally. Mr. Anderson who was absent, replied in a formal statement which he accused Mr. Coler of injecting "Tammany politics" into an international meeting.

Anti-Saloon League "Buck Passers."

Launching in his speech Mr. Coler leveled a bitter attack on the makers of dry workers, particularly those associated with the Anti-Saloon League saying they were "buck passers" and had not forced the leaders of either of the two major parties to take a stand on prohibition laws.

As for federal enforcement of prohibition the speaker demanded that "something be done right now." There was no reason for quibbling, he added because everybody knows liquor can be bought at most places and at most any time if you've got the right look in your eyes.

"If the prohibition enforcement officials don't take hold of this situation quickly," Mr. Coler continued, "There'll be a worse scandal than this administration goes out than there was in the old whiskey ring 25 years ago."

Could Round Up Officials.

"The prohibition commissioner, if he wanted to, could take one or two men and could round up senators, governors, federal officials and scores of others for violation of the liquor laws. New York could be cleaned up in sixty days. But the department of justice and Mr. Kramer's bureau and the other government departments have got to work together."

As it is everybody's ducked. The Anti-Saloon League has ducked. Even Cox and Harding, have ducked—except when needed and that's not a satisfactory way to get assurances."

BOMB EXPLOSION IS STILL MYSTERY

Identify Tag on Dead Horse—Receives Warning That Grand Central Station Will Be Blown Up.

New York, Sept. 23.—After a week had passed without investigators being able to solve the mystery of the Wall Street explosion, they were presented today with another mystery—who placed a package of dynamite in the Reid Avenue Elevated Station in Brooklyn this morning.

The package was found by a policeman doing strike duty on the Fulton street line which is operated by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company.

He soaked it in a bucket of water and then carried it to fire headquarters in Brooklyn. Later was taken to a laboratory in Manhattan for analysis.

Identify Tag on Horse.

Meanwhile detectives investigating the Wall Street explosion reported that thru the health department they had been able to identify the tag found near the horse attached to the death care which is believed to have been the center of the blast.

This tag, it was learned, had been issued in 1918 to the Road Ice Cream Company of Brooklyn, to certify that one of its horses was not afflicted with glanders, but since then the horse had been sold three times. The name of the latest owner, if known, was not made public.

More Bomb Scares.

Meanwhile in addition to the discovery of the bomb at the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Station, New York and vicinity were subjected to more bomb scares today.

An anonymous warning that the Grand Central Station would be blown up at 2 p. m., caused detectives to be rushed to the terminal and also to the Pennsylvania Station and the post office. Nothing happened.

The grand jury investigating the explosion of last Thursday continued today to hear witnesses.

Samuel Darley of the Durbin neighborhood was among the visitors in the city yesterday.

GOVERNOR COX HEDGES SOMEWHAT ON PEACE LEAGUE

Says Platform Permits of Reservations That Clarify

STILL HAUNTED BY REPUBLICAN SLUSH FUND

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 23.—His position on the league of nations was defined in further detail by Governor Cox of Ohio, Democratic presidential candidate in an address tonight. "I favor going on to put an end to war for all time," said the governor. "This is my position. I am determined to secure the earliest possible entrance into the league of nations with the least possible delay and with the least possible reservations needed to accomplish that result. The platform adopted by the convention at which I was nominated permits reservations which will clarify and reassure our people and is opposed only to reservations which would nullify and destroy."

The governor's statement was made in response to questions in local Republican newspapers which he said he was informed, were inspired by two advance agents of Chairman Hays of the Republican national committee. These men, named Headley and Smith, the candidates said, were "Hays scouts," and endeavoring to embarrass and minimize his western campaign, traveling a few days ahead on the governor's itinerary.

Position on Liquor Question.

To one of the local newspapers' question on prohibition, Governor Cox also reiterated his position, saying:

"No liquor organization has ever donated a dollar to any of my campaigns. I know, however, I have I ever owned a share of stock in any brewery. I suggest that this question be asked of the reactionary candidate."

Governor Cox challenged the newspapers to "get a single direct answer on any subject" from Senator Harding, his Republican opponent.

"He has been definite," the governor continued, "and he has been consistent on one thing only, his championship of the cause of big business and reaction, and his 'deference and devotion' to the senatorial oligarchy."

"When a political committee endeavors to kill the news, when it dares not meet the issue on which its candidate wobbles from day to day, when it seeks to secure the presidency by use of a huge corporation fund, it is time for the people to think seriously."

G. A. R. INCREASES PER CAPITA TAX

Raise Rate from Three and One-Half to Ten Cents—Change Ritual to Read "One Country, One Language and One Flag."

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 23.—The annual per capita tax of the Grand Army of the Republic here today was increased from three and one-half to ten cents by the delegates to the annual encampment in session here. A change in the ritual of the organization to read "one country, one language and one flag" instead of "one country and one flag" also voted.

Extended debate on the important questions before the organization today caused election of officers and selection of the next encampment city to be carried over until the final business session tomorrow morning. At the close of this session the encampment will officially end. The change in the per capita tax was recommended when it was pointed out that the membership today was only one-third what it was when the lower figure was adopted in 1890.

The delegates also voted to change the constitution to permit Civil war veterans who live in communities where there are no posts of the organization to become members at large of the organization.

The woman's auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans today elected Mrs. Ida M. Patterson, Rockford, Illinois, representative of the national council of women.

IRISH PROBLEM IS NOT QUESTION FOR OFFICIAL AMERICA

Senator Harding Set Forth His Views Thursday

WOULD RATHER FARM THAN ANYTHING

MARION, ON., Sept. 23.—Setting forth his views on the Irish problem for the first time since his nomination Senator Harding declared in a public statement today that it was "not a question for official America" and would be classed as "internal and domestic" under the league of nations covenant.

He did not state specially what his policy would be if elected president, but he suggested that the nation "already had meddled abroad excessively," and that of official action by the Washington government would be quite a different thing from an expression of sympathy, such as the senate adopted more than a year ago.

Senator Harding's statement was issued in the course of one of his busiest days, during which he held a series of conferences on financial and other issues and made a front porch speech asking for the co-operation of business executives and social reformers to promote social welfare. Among his callers were Otto H. Kahn, the New York financier and Representative James Good of Iowa, chairman of the house appropriations committee.

After his talk with the nominee, Mr. Kahn issued a statement declaring he was greatly pleased at the senator's calm judgment on national policies and adding that "anybody who thinks in Senator Harding he will find a standpoint, a man in sympathy with reactionary views, will make a great mistake in voting for him."

Discusses Social Welfare.

Then senator's front porch address was devoted principally to a discussion of social welfare. The crowd cheered him repeatedly, saying its greatest outburst of applause for a digression in which he declared he could not understand how anyone "could prefer a conglomerate flag of the league of nations to the stars and stripes."

Social progress, the senator asserted could come only in business men on the one hand and social reformers on the other, co-operated to knit into one pattern the conservation of material and human resources. He also made a plea for a more even balance between agriculture and industry saying that in recent years American agricultural life had not been given proper encouragement.

"In his tribute to the service rendered the nation by farmers the nominee said he hoped some day to become one."

"I would rather be a farmer than anything else in the world," he added. "It is the only occupation in which I know in which you can sit on your own fence and figuratively tell everybody to go jump in the river."

An Americanization association says in its publicity matter that reason should be the arbiter in all strife. It is a good saying, for when men are willing to listen to reason and when they reason without prejudice, good results are sure to follow. The big problem today is to get men to accept the old Biblical invitation: "Come, let us reason together."

That was a notable parade at Indianapolis when 18,000 veterans of the Civil War marched. The ranks of the veterans are thinning so rapidly that such a large group meant that they had assembled in Indianapolis from all over the U. S. It is a sight to stir the heart to new patriotic fervor to see the gray-haired men of the '60s on the march. They are passing so rapidly that not too much can be done to pay them honor.

The national coal association issues a timely notice urging people not to worry about their coal supply and giving the quieting assurance that there will be plenty of coal for all needs if people do not get panicky.

There is a good deal to this statement, for when people are worried and fussed about the coal supply an abnormal demand is created and the very demand is responsible for exorbitant prices. So the advice is good. The consumer who takes in enough coal to last for three months need feel no alarm and can think with pleasure of the strong possibility of paying lower prices later on than those now demanded by the coal barons.

They are reviving the old stories of permitting fruit and vegetables to rot in the northern states in order to reduce the market supply. There should be some way of finding out whether or not the charges are true. If they are true, there should be no great difficulty in bringing to justice the persons who are responsible for this loss to the people.

In these days when there is so much talk about losses sustained by street railway companies the Lincoln case stands out as a disquieting evidence. There the street railroad was purchased by the city after the owning company had refused to operate it. A recent report showed that the road was being operated with satisfactory results and at a reasonable profit.

The weather of the past two weeks has brought wonderful results to the corn crop. Fields where the farmers expected to have frost bitten have matured rapidly and are safe. There may be some soft corn in Morgan county this fall but the acreage will be mighty small by comparison with conditions that were expected a few weeks ago.

It's the same old story. Here the seasons are usually adjusted in a way to make good crops the result.

portant announcements of price reductions came swiftly on the heels of his sensational statement.

The Baltimore American says: A tabulation recently given out by the Census Bureau shows that the United States has sixty-nine cities, each with a population in excess of 100,000. When an urban community reaches the 100,000 population score, it has attained the dignity and distinction of being in the "no mean city" class. It has reached the status where talk about sanitary sewerage, a filtered water system, smooth-paved streets and the city beautiful are all proper, correct and duly listed on the program. But, also, when the 75,000 population count is reached the aforementioned big town is rightly enough entitled to register in the important cities class.

And the United States can count more than a hundred cities with more than 75,000 population. To each, about one-third of all the cities in the world having populations up to 75,000 are in the United States. The quick development of cities in this comparatively new country is amazing when comparisons are made. London, for instance, is more than 1,000 years old, and Rome is more than 2,000 years old. But New York is bigger and richer than London, and Baltimore along with a half-dozen other American cities, is greater as to population than the city that has come down from the Komulus and Remus time.

Open the map of Europe and lay alongside the map of the United States. Spot one by one the important cities on the map of Europe, and in almost every case there will be an American city to match it, not merely in population count but in those developments and artificial adornments which really make a city a city.

THE TEACHER SHORTAGE

The teacher shortage remains a menace to the public schools according to preliminary reports made public today by the National Education association. Replies to questionnaires sent out by the association have come from all sections of the United States. These reports show that in places where teachers' salaries have been increased one hundred per cent or more the situation is nearly always satisfactory. But such places are comparatively few, and in localities where salaries have been increased fifty per cent or less the teacher shortage is commonly greater than a year ago. Rural communities are hardest hit. Signed reports from superintendents of many counties indicate that a third of their rural schools cannot open for want of teachers. Tens of thousands of schools will be in charge of teachers who have had no professional preparation and whose academic training barely exceeds that of the children they teach.

Relief from this serious situation, which imperils the stability of American rural life, will be sought from the next session of Congress. Renewed efforts will be made to obtain the passage of the Smith-Towner bill, which creates a department of education with a secretary in the president's cabinet and provides federal aid of $100,000 for education.

Rippling Rhymes

are starting. Oh, they are brave and buoyant ladders, and they come whooping home o' night with loads of finnan haddies. Their vigils in the fog they keep, they know all Neptune's glories, they see the wonders of the deep, and should be full of stories. They anchor in the little bay before my saved-off dwelling; I visit them at close of day, when curlews quit their yelling. "Oh, hoary farmer of the sea," I say, to some old chappie, "hand out a salty yarn to me, and you will make me happy." "There's nothing doing on the deep," the fisher says, a-sighing; "a delegate should landward keep that's where the news is flying. I always knew that Fulton stuff would never be a winner; it only needed one good bluff to paralyze that sinner. The prize ring now is run to cheese, and most of it is schweitzer; the British champs have some disease, the Frenchman's punk, you're right sir. Oh, yes, we sail our dorries out, thru all the spray and smother; but there's no yarn in that, old scout—one day's just like another."

MILLERAND NEW

PRESIDENT OF THE
FRENCH REPUBLIC

Long Been Foremost Figure in French Political Life

WAS PROMINENT IN AFFAIRS DURING WAR

Versailles, Sept. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—Alexander Millerand was invested with the executive powers of the eleventh president of the Third Republic today before the assembled Versailles congress ten minutes after Leon Bourgeois, president of the senate had proclaimed him elected without the usual formalities of receiving the powers from the hands of the retiring president at Elysee Palace.

The line of M. Deschanel, the former president made impossible the customary ceremony in Paris, but M. Millerand received the greatest ovation at Versailles ever given a president.

Gives Veto to Enthusiasm.
The tenth congress, which had been rather a pathetic one, gave vent today to all the pent-up enthusiasm of the past five days and cheered for several minutes.

M. Millerand surrounded by deputies and senators was greatly moved. He replied to the congratulations of M. Bourgeois with assurance that he would discharge the duties of his post in accordance with the constitution.

"Victorious France must rebuild its ruins and repair its wounds," he said. "We must continue a foreign policy worthy of our victory and our dead."

The Republican congress has just designated as president will bring to the discharge of his duties all his intelligence and energy and try to be worthy the confidence of the people's representatives.

Alexandre Millerand has long been one of the foremost figures in the political life of France, his entry into parliament dating back to 1885 and his cabinet experience to 1889, when he became a member of the Waldeck-Rousseau cabinet. His early affiliations were with the radical socialists, and he always has been keenly interested in labor questions and has fathered numerous measures for the betterment of the working world, notably the old age pension act, which became operative in 1905.

It was M. Millerand's services to his country during the great war, however, as minister of war in the Viviani cabinet, and his notable conduct of France's foreign policy as the successor of Clemenceau in the premiership after the "Tiger's" retirement last January that raised him into pre-eminent eligibility for the presidency.

M. Millerand was born in Paris, Feb. 10, 1859, and was educated for the bar. His first ministerial post was as minister of commerce, but he has served in several old cabinet positions, notably as minister of public works in the Briand ministry of 1909, minister of war in the Viviani ministry, in which post he was appointed in August, 1914, shortly after the outbreak of the world war. He held the war ministry until the Viviani cabinet resigned October 29, 1915.

LITHUANIANS-POLES
RESUME FIGHTING

Polish Government Notifies the League of Nations Council.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—The recurrence of fighting between the Poles and Lithuanians, notwithstanding the pacific attitude of the representatives of both nations before the council of the league of nations here Monday is explained from the Polish side in a dispatch from Warsaw today.

The Polish government says the message has sent the league of nations a note declaring that at the Kalwary conference where peace negotiations were being conducted the Poles had presented the Lithuanians with propositions in accordance with the decisions of the league's council.

The note adds that the Lithuanians, however, rejected these propositions and that Poland was obliged to end the armistice.

The note declares Poland disclaims any responsibility for the events which may result from the Lithuanian government's action.

An Americanization association says in its publicity matter that reason should be the arbiter in all strife. It is a good saying, for when men are willing to listen to reason and when they reason without prejudice, good results are sure to follow. The big problem today is to get men to accept the old Biblical invitation, "Come, let us reason together."

That was a notable parade at Indianapolis when 18,000 veterans of the Civil War marched. The ranks of the veterans are thinning so rapidly that such a large group meant that they had assembled in Indianapolis from all over the U. S. It is a sight to stir the heart to now patriotic fervor to see the gray-haired men of the '60s on the march. They are passing so rapidly that not too much can be done to pay them honor.

The national coal association issues a timely notice urging people not to worry about their coal supply and giving the quieting assurance that there will be plenty of coal for all needs. People do not get panicky.

There is a good deal to this statement, for when people are worried and fussed about the coal supply an abnormal demand is created and the very demand is responsible for exorbitant prices. So the advice is good. The consumer who takes in enough coal to last for three months need feel no alarm and can think with pleasure of the strong possibility of paying lower prices later on than those now demanded by the coal barons.

They are reviving the old stories of permitting fruit and vegetables to rot in the northern states in order to reduce the market supply. There should be some way of finding out whether or not the charges are true. If they are true, there should be no great difficulty in bringing to justice the persons who are responsible for this loss to the people.

In these days when there is so much talk about losses sustained by street railway companies the Lincoln case stands out as a disquieting evidence. There the street railroad was purchased by the city after the owning company had refused to operate it. A recent report showed that the road was being operated with satisfactory results and at a reasonable profit.

The weather of the past two weeks has brought wonderful results to the corn crop. Fields where the farmers expected to have frost-bitten have matured rapidly and are safe. There may be some soft corn in Morgan county this fall but the acreage will be mighty small by comparison with conditions that were expected a few weeks ago.

It's the same old story. Here the seasons are usually adjusted in a way to make good crops the result.

The Chicago Tribune evidently carries no malice toward Henry Ford because of the famous Ford suit against that paper. The Tribune yesterday strongly commended Mr. Ford for his action in reducing the price of his cars to a pre-war basis. In the view of that paper the action gave proof of the manufacturer's wisdom. Evidently Mr. Ford has blazed the way for other inportant announcements of price reductions came swiftly on the heels of his sensational statement.

The Baltimore American says: A tabulation recently given out by the Census Bureau shows that the United States has sixty-nine cities, each with a population in excess of 100,000. When an urban community reaches the 100,000 population score, it has attained the dignity and distinction of being in the "big mean city" class. It has reached the status where talk about sanitary sewerage, a filtered water system, smooth-paved streets and the city beautiful are all proper, correct and duly listed on the program. But, also, when the 75,000 population count is reached the aforementioned big town is rightly enough entitled to register in the important cities class.

And the United States can count more than a hundred cities with more than 75,000 population to each. About one-third of all the cities in the world having populations up to 75,000 are in the United States. The quick development of cities in this comparatively new country is amazing when comparisons are made. London, for instance, is more than 1,000 years old, and Rome is more than 2,000 years old. But New York is bigger and richer than London, and Baltimore along with a half-dozen other American cities, is greater as to population than the city that has come down from the Romulus and Remus time.

Open the map of Europe and lay alongside the map of the United States. Spot one by one the important cities on the map of Europe, and in almost every case there will be an American city to match it, not merely in population count but in those developments and artificial adornments which really make a city a city.

THE TEACHER SHORTAGE

The teacher shortage remains a menace to the public schools according to preliminary reports made public today by the National Education association. Replies to questionnaires sent out by the association have come from all sections of the United States. These reports show that in places where teachers' salaries have been increased one hundred per cent or more the situation is nearly always satisfactory. But such places are comparatively few, and in localities where salaries have been increased fifty per cent or less the teacher shortage is commonly greater than a year ago. Rural communities are hardest hit. Signed reports from superintendents of many counties indicate that a third of their rural schools cannot open for want of teachers. Tens of thousands of schools will be in charge of teachers who have had no professional preparation and whose academic training barely exceeds that of the children they teach.

Relief from this serious situation, which imperils the stability of American rural life, will be sought from the next session of Congress. Renewed efforts will be made to obtain the passage of the Smith-Towner bill, which creates a department of education with a secretary in the president's cabinet and provides federal aid of $100,000 for education.

FORTY INJURED WHEN INTERURBAN TRAINS COLLIDE

Failure of the Airbrakes is Given as Cause of the Accident

STEEL CARS PREVENTED LOSS OF LIFE

WATERLOO, Iowa, Sept. 23.—About forty persons injured, four seriously on the Waterloo-Cedar Falls and Northern Railway when interurban trains, north and south bound collided head-on east of Brandon at 11:15 a. m. today.

The injured were brought to Waterloo on relief trains and taken to hospitals and their homes.

Only four were sufficiently injured to require hospital services. Most of the injuries were to faces and hands, the passenger being hurled forward against seats.

Cause of the accident is given as failure of airbrakes of the northbound train to work, forcing the car to continue on rails made slippery by light rain. The accident happened about 300 feet from the place where the trains were due to pass.

Both cars had the front ends and vestibule smashed in but did not overturn. That none was killed was due to the solid steel construction of the cars. The track was cleared by 1 p. m. A few minutes a report of the accident came to the terminal office here, a special relief car was on the way to the scene with doctors and first aid material.

CHICAGO ALDERMAN CARRIES LUNCH

A detective was sent to a restaurant to purchase a lunch similar to the one Mr. Poole's wife had packed for him.

Costs Twenty Eight Cents
"Our lunch demonstrates that at a cost of 28 cents, we received more wholesome food than can be purchased at loop hotels and restaurants for 60 cents to $1," Mr. Poole said. "In the sandwiches we bought the bread and meat were almost tasteless, as well as of transparent thinness."

The home lunch consisted of a sandwich containing two ounces of meat which costs 8 cents; one apple, 2 cents; a cheese sandwich containing two ounces of cheese, a standard nine inch pie, 4 cents; 4 cents; one piece of pie cut from and one pint of milk delivered by a milk man at the city hall offices, 10 cents. Total 28 cents.

Mrs. Christine Beilschmidt Passed Away at Age of Eighty Years — Mrs. Wood and Daughter Leave for Florida — Other Arenzville Items.

Arenzville, Sept. 23.—Funeral services for the late Mrs. Christine Beilschmidt were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the Presbyterian church. Rev. Music was furnished by a quartet from the Presbyterian church and the beautiful floral tributes were cared for by grandchildren of the deceased, Misses Ethel Rayborn, Viola and Inez and William Beilschmidt. The death of Mrs. Beilschmidt on Monday brought a feeling of gloom to the entire community. The deceased had been in poor health for some months but on Sunday was able to be about the house. In the evening she began to show alarming symptoms and her death followed a few hours later.

Christine Becker was born in Germany and came to the U. S. with a brother in 1858. Her marriage to Mr. Beilschmidt occurred in 1860 and they were the parents of four children. Surviving are William, residing at home, Henry of Prentice, and Mrs. Henry Rayborn of Jacksonville. One daughter died in infancy, and her husband passed away in 1913.

BABE RUTH GOES BACK TO HOME TOWN
Baltimore, Md., Sept. 23.—"Babe" Ruth returning to his home town today where ten thousand fans hoped to see the famous native son produce at least one circuit clout, struck out twice, the last time with the bases full. The Baltimore Orioles beat the New York Yankees, 1 to 0.

Jack Bentley, the Orioles' star pitcher, fanned "Babe" in the third inning crossing him with a curve when the home run king was looking for a straight ball. In the fourth he was out on an easy grounder, in the sixth Ogden passed him and in the eighth with three Yankees on the bases and "Babe's" home town crowd tense with excitement, Harry Frank slipped over a third strike.

Tonight however, "Babe" produced another sort of "homer." At a mass meeting in the Fifth Regiment Armory for the benefit of St. Mary's Industrial School where Ruth learned baseball, he made a speech and wrote his check for $2,500 to help replace the building destroyed by fire.

PRESIDENT WILSON SENDS GREETINGS

Praises Work of Legion Men in Late World War.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 23.—President Wilson, thru the Legionaire, the weekly publication of the posts in Cuyahoga county today sent a message of greeting to the American Legion, which will open a three days convention here Monday. The message follows:

"Years are now beginning to separate us from the day of trial and deeds of valor which marked America's participation in the world war. As the number of these years increase the things you did in foreign fields will be seen in clearer perspective and your heroic quality will be more and more apparent.

"The nation sent you as its representatives and its champions, the fidelity with which you fought fittingly represented the faithfulness with which these at home who labored and sacrificed in the same cause. The result of it all was a military victory in France and a moral victory in the world; the deeds of valor, the deeds on high thinking; the deeds of righteous impulses together make a great tradition and it will be good for all future generations to continue your practice of cherishing these memories and keeping them bright as an example and inspiration.

"My own high privilege of leadership was a daily privilege. There was no need to urge; we all went forward as comrades to a great end and we can survey the result with gratitude that America was permitted to make so great a contribution to righteousness among peoples and among nations."

SEVEN KILLED IN ITALIAN RIOTS

LONDON, Sept. 23.—Seven persons were killed in the rioting in Turin, says a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Rome.

A despatch from Turin says that, following an attack on the Royal Guards, the troops were ordered out and firing immediately began. The workers chiefly used hand grenades. The coolness of the troops prevented an absolute massacre. The strikers turned out in force, and for two hours the scenes of sanguinary encounters. Motor lorries transporting troops were fired on incessantly. The fighting centers around the Corso Reina Margherita where one Royal Guard was killed and another guard fatally injured. Further troops arrived and eventually cleared the streets.

Later fighting occurred in the populous quarters near Porta Palazzo and Via Chiglia. Here machine guns kept up a lively fire for another two hours. Late in the evening order was restored but the theatres, shops and hotels were closed.

Two deaths were caused as the result of the fighting in this vicinity, one being a striker. Six strikers were seriously wounded. Machine guns have been posted at all strategic points and both sides are preparing for further trouble.

Winchendon, Mass., Sept. 23.—The cotton mills of N. D. White & Sons, will go on a three days a week schedule beginning Sept. 30, it was announced today. One thousand operatives will be affected.

KAISER BILL GIVES HOSPITAL TO VILLAGE

Is Memorial for Asylum Given Him When He Fleed From Germany—Built and Furnished By Ex-Emperor.

Amerongen, Sept. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—William Hohenzollern, former emperor of Germany, today turned over to the village authorities here the little hospital he had ordered built as a memorial for the asylum which Amerongen gave him when he fled from Germany. The former emperor motored over from solitude of the House of Doorn, where he now resides, to the village of Amerongen, which was gaily decorated for the festivities. For the first time since he came to Holland, he was the central figure in a little scene of pomp.

The people of Amerongen who heretofore had been without a hospital fairly bombarded the one-time emperor with bouquets and words of thanks when his automobile left late this afternoon to carry him back to Doorn. His bearded face bore a continuous smile of delight. Three times in three hundred yards his automobile was stopped by villagers who presented him with flowers.

This was the first enthusiastic demonstration which William Hohenzollern had received since he gave up the throne of Germany.

The structure was built and completely furnished by the emperor at a cost of 100,000 florins. It contains eight beds, the use of which is open to all persons in Amerongen.

FIND BODY OF MAN WHO DISAPPEARED FOUR MONTHS AGO

Body of Los Angeles Capitalist Was Found in Cellar

IN HERMETICALLY SEALED BOX

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 23.—Discovery of the body of Jacob Charles Denton, Los Angeles capitalist, who disappeared four months ago was found buried under several tons of earth in a hermetically sealed box in the cellar of a house today brought to light what the police characterized as the most weird murder mystery in the history of the city.

The body, wrapped in a cotton comforter, was found in a deep hole under the cellar stairs where it had been covered with earth and a little room built around the place. Physicians said he had been dead about three months. Denton had been living in a fashionable apartment house. The residence in which his body was found was his property but had been occupied by tenants who took the property from an agent about a month ago.

Mr. Denton was said to have been divorced and to have a daughter, Frances Denton, who lives in Phoenix, Ari. Investigated Mound of Earth. The discovery of the body resulted from investigation of a mound of fresh earth that was in the basement of the house with nothing to show whence it came. The detective began to take measurements and soundings with the result that he broke thru into the secret room and found the body.

Police detectives called into the case by the private investigator who had discovered the body learned that Denton had given up his apartment and had been occupying at the time of his disappearance a room in the house where his body was found. They searched the room and found numerous letters, a pistol and blood stains.

There was a bible in the room which bore a record of two marriages of which Denton had been a party. According to this his second wife and infant child had died and he had divorced his first wife but continued friendly relations with her. She lived in Missouri at some place not yet determined. His second wife was Dollie Mae Winters before the marriage.

COTEMAN FUNERAL IS HELD AT VIRGINIA

Late Henry Coleman Laid to Rest Wednesday Afternoon—Mrs. Earl Smith and Children Return from Girard—Other Virginia News.

Virginia, Sept. 23.—Funeral services for the late Henry Coleman were held from the residence on North Main street at 2 o'clock Wednesday, Sept. 22. Rev. C. E. French, pastor of the Church of Christ, assisted by Rev. Max B. Wiles, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the services.

Mr. Coleman was born in Germany March 23, 1841, and came to America in his early days. He was united in marriage to Miss Sarah E. Dunn on Feb. 5, 1868. To this union five children were born: Fred, now deceased; William of Mt. Auburn; Albert and Miss Edith of Virginia; Mrs. John Pendleton of Chandlerville, all of whom survive.

The deceased was a Civil War veteran, having served with Co. G, third regiment of Illinois Volunteers, receiving his honorable discharge at the close of the war. Although of German birth, no one could have been more loyal to his adopted country during the recent world war than he.

Since his retirement from farm life Mr. Coleman has been proprietor of the City Book store and was at his place of business until a few days before his death, when he was taken very ill with pneumonia which caused his death on Monday, Sept. 20. Mr. Coleman was a member of Downing Post, G. A. R. and the I. O. O. F., the latter having charge of the services at the grave. A quartet consisting of Mrs. V. E. Robertson and Miss Ella Wilson, John Bergen and W. D. Emerick, furnished music for the service. Burial was in Walnut Ridge cemetery.

As a mark of respect to the deceased, all business places were closed during the funeral service. Mrs. Caroline Ryder of Chandlerville was in this city Wednesday to attend the funeral of the late Henry Coleman.

John McIntire is a patient at St. John's Hospital in Springfield.

Mrs. Sue Lancaster is recovering from a recent illness. The venerable T. S. Williamson has been quite ill at the family home on Cass street for the past several days. Mr. Williamson has the honor of being the oldest man in Cass county, having celebrated his 100 birthday last November.

Mrs. Anna Maddox of St. Louis is the guest of her brother, Paul Bannan and other relatives here.

WINCHESTER FUNERAL LARGELY ATTENDED

Funeral Services for Lawrence Waggoner Held Thursday Afternoon—Pleasant Event at Monument Park Thursday Evening—Other Winchester Notes.

Winchester, Sept. 23.—The funeral of Lawrence Waggoner was held from the Christian church at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. As the funeral cortege moved to the church the high school students marched in a body from the school, led by the high school students and faculty members being present in large numbers, and the Sunday school room was entirely filled by friends of the young man.

A quartet composed of Mrs. Gertrude Demereth, Mrs. Ada Lankford, C. W. Smith and Otto Henry sang "Come Ye Disconsolate," and the Scripture lesson was read by Rev. Mr. Elmore. Following the singing of "Abide With Me" by the quartet, the minister read an obituary sketch and offered prayer. Mrs. Demereth and Mrs. Lankford sang as a duet "There Will be no Tears in Paradise." Rev. Mr. Elmore delivered an excellent discourse and the service closed with the singing of "The Christian's Goodnight," by the quartet.

There were many beautiful flowers and these were cared for by Misses Edna Ross, Lois Welch, Kate Hamilton, Frances Dugan, Lucille and Dorothy Hankins.

Burial was in Winchester cemetery, the bearers being Ralph Peak, Walter Tackner, Stanley Simmons, George Cowhick, Jr., Albert Rutherford and Russell Dahman.

CARMEN AT THE GRAND TONIGHT

Ralph Dunbar, the Chicagoan who revives operas, puts them on perfectly, no matter what the cost, and then counts his earnings by the thousands, is a past master for detail. He personally supervises the designing of all costumes, the arrangement and building of the scenery, works out the best light effects and conducts rehearsals from early morning until late at night.

His latest production—the George Bizet opera "Carmen"—will be the attraction at the Grand theater, Friday, Sept. 24, and it is quite possible that the producer will be here in person. He won't stand at the front door of the theater immaculately clad in dress clothes. Should you seek him the chances are that he would be found helping the property men or playing the cello in the augmented orchestra.

Dunbar is what might be called an "all around" man. He can conduct his opera, can act and he can sing; he can build properties and design costumes and is a mighty good scene painter. And furthermore, he is the best judge of vocal talent in the United States today.

As mentioned elsewhere, Jacksonville is to be honored today by the presence of the officials of the Chicago & Alton railroad. C. W. Galligan, freight traffic manager, arrived on the Hummer Thursday night and will meet other officials of the road here today.

The special car of the officials will be attached to one of the incoming trains this morning. In the party will be W. G. Bierd, president; S. G. Lutz, vice president; A. E. Titus, general manager; A. Social Events

Social Circle Held Meeting.

The Social Circle of the Ladies' Aid society of Congregational church met yesterday afternoon at the pleasant country home of Mrs. Walter Carter, south of the city. Sophomores Hold Banquet At Peacock Inn.

The residents of the usually quiet city of Jacksonville who passed the Peacock Inn at 6:30 yesterday evening may have thought it was a repetition of the Belfast riots. They were reassured when they found it was the Illinois college sophomores holding their annual banquet, despite the efforts of the freshman class. The hordes of new comers on the hill made a valiant attack but notwithstanding their superior numbers they were decidedly unsuccessful.

The banquet, served by the Peacock Inn, was up to its usual excellent standard. After the dinner a program was given under the supervision of the toastmaster, Vinton Woods. The following members of the class responded to toasts: President Gail Barker, Edward Tanner, W. A. Scott, Russell Pinkerton, Misses Laverna Rice and Elizabeth Cogswell.

The evening program was concluded by an informal dance.

Meeting of Centenary Ladies' Aid

The Centenary Ladies' Aid held their regular social meeting at the church parlors yesterday afternoon. About twenty-five members were present.

EXPRESS COMPANY LEASES NEW QUARTERS

Will Use Old C. P. & St. L.
Freight House for Depot Office and Ware Room.

It was made known by A. R. Eyre, agent of the American Express Co., yesterday, that the company has leased the old C. P. & St. L. freight house and will use it as a depot office and warehouse. The company has been maintaining an office in the C. & A. station and warehouse in the Franks building on North West street, owned by Hopper & Hoffmann. As soon as the freight house is vacated by the Jacksonville Farm Supply Co., some changes will be made and the company will handle all its shipping business from that point. The express for distribution and to be forwarded will all be sent to this warehouse.

The uptown office on West State street will be maintained as heretofore for the convenience of the public.

Dr. Carl E. Black is at home after a brief visit in Chicago, where he attended the quarterly session of the state board of registration and education. ATTENTION, W. R. C.

The Woman's Relief Corps will hold their regular meeting in the C. A. R. hall on South Main street Friday afternoon promptly at 2 o'clock. A large attendance is desired.

CARMEN AT THE GRAND TONIGHT

Ralph Dunbar, the Chicagoan who revives operas, puts them on perfectly, no matter what the cost, and then counts his earnings by the thousands, is a past master for detail. He personally supervises the designing of all costumes, the arrangement and building of the scenery, works out the best light effects and conducts rehearsals from early morning until late at night.

His latest production—the George Bizet opera "Carmen"—will be the attraction at the Grand theater, Friday, Sept. 24, and it is quite possible that the producer will be here in person. He won't stand at the front door of the theater immaculately clad in dress clothes. Should you seek him the chances are that he would be found helping the property men or playing the cello in the augmented orchestra.

Dunbar is what might be called an "all around" man. He can conduct his opera, can act and he can sing; he can build properties and design costumes and is a mighty good scene painter. And furthermore, he is the best judge of vocal talent in the United States today.

C. & A. OFFICERS CITY'S GUESTS TODAY

Pres. Bierd and Party Coming on Special Train This Morning—Mr. Galligan Here.

As mentioned elsewhere, Jacksonville is to be honored today by the presence of the officials of the Chicago & Alton railroad. C. W. Galligan, freight traffic manager, arrived on the Hummer Thursday night and will meet other officials of the road here today.

The special car of the officials will be attached to one of the incoming trains this morning. In the party will be W. G. Bierd, president; S. G. Lutz, vice president; A. P. Titus, general manager; A. E. Lee, general freight agent. Other officials who are to come during the day are James Williams of New York City, secretary of the C. & A., and W. E. Mann of Springfield, division freight agent.

After President Bierd arrives he will probably devote two or three hours to taking care of correspondence he will receive here, and then with two other of the officials is expecting to spend several hours on the golf links.

The entertainment for the visitors today will be of an entirely informal character. They will no doubt visit Mauvaisterre Lake and inspect the filtration and power plants now in the course of construction. Social Events

Social Circle Held Meeting

The Social Circle of the Ladies' Aid society of Congregational church met yesterday afternoon at the pleasant country home of Mrs. Walter Carter, south of the city. A large attendance was present and a most enjoyable meeting was held. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Walter Carter, Mrs. Will Carter and Mrs. Truman Carter.

Sophomores Hold Banquet At Peacock Inn

The residents of the usually quiet city of Jacksonville who passed the Peacock Inn at 6:30 yesterday evening may have thought it was a repetition of the Belfast riots. They were reassured when they found it was the Illinois college sophomores holding their annual banquet, despite the efforts of the freshman class. The hordes of new comers on the hill made a valiant attack but notwithstanding their superior numbers they were decidedly unsuccessful.

The banquet, served by the Peacock Inn, was up to its usual excellent standard. After the dinner a program was given under the supervision of the toastmaster, Vinton Woods. The following members of the class responded to toasts: President Gail Barker, Edward Tanner, W. A. Scott, Russell Pinkerton, Misses Laverna Rice and Elizabeth Cogswell.

The evening program was concluded by an informal dance.

Meeting of Centenary Ladies' Aid held their regular social meeting at the church parlors yesterday afternoon. About twenty-five members were present.

A short business session was held to settle up the business connected with the Masonic banquet, served by this society. A social hour followed the business session and the hostesses served light refreshments. The hostesses of the meeting were: Mrs. Geo. Moore, Mrs. Lucretia Brown, Mrs. C. S. Smith, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Mae Slice, Mrs. W. I. Crabtree and Miss Olive Hodgson.

The Misses Mackness entertained for a bride and bride-to-be.

The Misses Alma and Carrie Mackness entertained at a bridge party yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Beulah McMurphy, who is soon to wed Mr. James Capps, Jr., of Springfield.

The prizes were won by Mrs. Marcy Osborne and Miss Pauline McMurphy with the guests prizes going to Mrs. Frederick Buck and Miss Beulah McMurphy.

A two course luncheon was served.

Alexander W. F. M. S. met Thursday.

Alexander, Sept. 23.—The Woman's Foreign Missionary society met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Samuel Wilcox. Nearly all the members were present and there were also a number of guests. Several new members were received into the society.

CARBURETORS

The new Stromberg Carburetors are a response to the demand of present economic conditions: the threatening scarcity of gasoline fuel, the depreciation in quality, and the increasingly critical requirements of the motorist of today.

Old methods were not adequate: for new results it was necessary to employ new principles; and starting from the elementary carburetor form, the PLAIN TUBE, a design was developed which though simple in construction, performed a number of new functions, hitherto unaccomplished but vitally essential to the efficient use of present day heavy fuels.

A Plain Tube Carburetor is one in which both the air and the gasoline openings are fixed in size; and in which the gasoline is metered automatically, without the aid of moving parts, by the suction of air velocity past the jets.

Along with the advantage of simplicity, and freedom from derangement, this construction allows the whole air supply to be taken thru a heater, which increases the efficiency, eliminates danger from backfire, and tends to prevent dirt from entering the motor thru the carburetor.

Come in and get, or let us send you one of the new booklets giving the latest on Carburetors.

CHILDREN ARE GIVEN TREAT AT WHITE HALL

Ice Cream Dispensed to Large Numbers of Children Recently—Beautiful Floral Design Placed on Exhibition.

White Hall, Sept. 22.—There was a floral design placed on exhibition today in the display windows of Armstrong's drug store that is the most mammoth production of the kind ever made at White Hall, and in sentiment represents still greater things. The design is the work of A. J. Harding, proprietor of the White Hall greenhouses, and is a five-foot piece, representing a lyre, stars, cross and bower. The flowers forming the piece were furnished by 800 children of White Hall and vicinity, who brought them to Whiteside park Tuesday evening in response to an invitation to come and receive a treat of ice cream free of charge with the compliments of a group of citizens who made up a fund for the sole purpose of showing the children a good time in the park.

The management was directly in charge of Mrs. W. P. Bates (Mother Bates), and her experience in conducting such affairs on a lesser scale enabled her to carry out the undertaking with exceeding skill, she having chosen two women from each church to assist in dispensing the ice cream cones and squawkers, and so fast did the work proceed that the whole gathering had been treated between the hours of 7 and 7:30 o'clock culminating in a din and frolic that has never before been witnessed here, there being a large gathering of grown-ups to witness it.

In connection with the invitation a suggestion was offered that if any child should be so disposed it was asked to bring one or more flowers to be turned over to Mr. Harding, and it was understood that these flowers were to be formed by Mr. Harding into a huge bouquet as a tribute from the children of White Hall to Mr. and Mrs. Seth N. Griswold for their great benefactions in park and playgrounds affairs. The response on part of the children, Mrs. Bates reports, was 100 per cent. That every child brought a bouquet was evidenced by the fact that Mr. Harding accumulated a large clothes basket full of blooms during the evening, and it was from those contributions that the great floral design was made that is attracting universal attention in the display window of the Armstrong drug store, carrying the words, "Tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Seth N. Griswold from 800 Children of White Hall." Nothing like it has ever happened here or in this section of the state, and, too, there are no such philanthropists as the Griswolds in this section of the state. The permanence of their benefactions, now approaching $20,000 for a park and playgrounds, is fixed by the sentiment that this occasion has demonstrated exists among the future citizens, who will carry on the work and zealously guard the memory of the now living benefactors far into future generations.

The Hardings had expected to be able to inaugurate their new flower store by exhibiting there this floral tribute to the Griswolds but the work could not be carried along to that point in time. The citizens who made the treat possible include Jack Coker, W. F. Dillman, C. B. Stahl, H. W. Shirley, J. E. Wyatt, H. H. Williams, T. M. English, R. B. Pearce, E. F. Ross, Troy Vermillion and T. J. Grant. These gentlemen contributed three dollars each, and there is still a deficit to meet all expenses amounting to twelve dollars, and four more contributions of three dollars are requested to be sent to T. M. English, treasurer. It is desired that this be made an annual affair.

CARBURETORS

The new Stromberg Carburetors are a response to the demand of present economic conditions: the threatening scarcity of gasoline fuel, the depreciation in quality, and the increasingly critical requirements of the motorist of today.

Old methods were not adequate: for new results it was necessary to employ new principles; and starting from the elementary carburetor form, the PLAIN TUBE, a design was developed which though simple in construction, performed a number of new functions, hitherto unaccomplished but vitally essential to the efficient use of present day heavy fuels.

A Plain Tube Carburetor is one in which both the air and the gasoline openings are fixed in size; and in which the gasoline is metered automatically, without the aid of moving parts, by the suction of air velocity past the jets.

Along with the advantage of simplicity, and freedom from derangement, this construction allows the whole air supply to be taken thru a heater, which increases the efficiency, eliminates danger from backfire, and tends to prevent dirt from entering the motor thru the carburetor.

Come in and get, or let us sent you one of the new booklets giving the latest on Carburetors.

CHILDREN ARE GIVEN TREAT AT WHITE HALL

Ice Cream Dispensed to Large Numbers of Children Recently—Beautiful Floral Design Placed on Exhibition.

White Hall, Sept. 22.—There was a floral design placed on exhibition today in the display windows of Armstrong's drug store that is the most mammoth production of the kind ever made at White Hall, and in sentiment represents still greater things. The design is the work of A. J. Harding, proprietor of the White Hall greenhouses, and is a five-foot piece, representing a lyre, stars, cross and bower. The flowers forming the piece were furnished by 800 children of White Hall and vicinity, who brought them in response to an invitation to come and receive a treat of ice cream free of charge with the compliments of a group of citizens who made up a fund for the sole purpose of showing the children a good time in the park.

The management was directly in charge of Mrs. W. P. Bates (Mother Bates), and her experience in conducting such affairs on a lesser scale enabled her to carry out the undertaking with exceeding skill, she having chosen two women from each church to assist in dispensing the ice cream cones and squawkers, and so fast did the work proceed that the whole gathering had been treated between the hours of 7 and 7:30 o'clock culminating in a din and frolic that has never before been witnessed here, there being a large gathering of grown-ups to witness it.

In connection with the invitation a suggestion was offered that if any child should be so disposed it was asked to bring one or more flowers to be turned over to Mr. Harding, and it was understood that these flowers were to be formed by Mr. Harding into a huge bouquet as a tribute from the children of White Hall to Mr. and Mrs. Seth N. Griswold for their great benefactions in park and playgrounds affairs. The response on part of the children, Mrs. Bates reports, was 100 per cent. That every child brought a bouquet was evidenced by the fact that Mr. Harding accumulated a large clothes basket full of blooms during the evening, and it was from those contributions that the great floral design was made that is attracting universal attention in the display window of the Armstrong drug store, carrying the words, "Tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Seth N. Griswold from 800 Children of White Hall." Nothing like it has ever happened here or in this section of the state, and, too, there are no such philanthropists as the Griswolds in this section of the state. The permanence of their benefactions, now approaching $20,000 for a park and playgrounds, is fixed by the sentiment that this occasion has demonstrated exists among the future citizens, who will carry on the work and zealously guard the memory of the now living benefactors far into future generations.

The Hardings had expected to be able to inaugurate their new flower store by exhibiting there this floral tribute to the Griswolds but the work could not be carried along to that point in time. The citizens who made the treat possible include Jack Coker, W. F. Dillman, C. B. Stahl, H. W. Shirley, J. E. Wyatt, H. H. Williams, T. M. English, R. B. Pearce, E. F. Ross, Troy Vermillion and T. J. Grant. These gentlemen contributed three dollars each, and there is still a deficit to meet all expenses amounting to twelve dollars, and four more contributions of three dollars are requested to be sent to T. M. English, treasurer. It is desired that this be made an annual affair.

EX-SHERIFF IS OUT WITH FACTS

Says Biggest Surprise of His Life Was the Way Tanlac Restored Wife's Health.

"I just wish you could hear my wife praise Tanlac, and I am no less grateful than she is for her wonderful recovery, recently declared Peter Miller, a prominent farmer living at Littleton, Ind., R. F. D. 14, ex-Sheriff of Pike county.

"For fifteen years she hardly knew a well day was, and was on the flat of her back two-thirds of the time. She couldn't eat solid food of any kind without suffering severe pain afterwards. She suffered with dreadful headaches and her nerves were so shattered that she couldn't rest at night and for years she hadn't been able to do any work around the house and thought she could not live much longer.

"I never had anything equal to the surprise I got when Tanlac overcame all my wife's troubles and changed her into a strong and healthy woman. Tanlac seemed to soothe her stomach and give her an appetite, and within a short time she was up and around the house. She has gained so much in weight that her friends hardly know her. She eats three meals a day and is so much stronger that she insists on doing a big share of the housework, while only a short time ago she couldn't even cross the room by herself. I have spent thousands of dollars for other medicines and treatment, but my wife's health has been restored by Tanlac at a cost almost too small to mention."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co., J. F. Shreve Drug Co., and the leading drug store in every town.—Adv.

But Bagby Off the Rubber in Sixth—Kerr Held Cleveland Safe Until Eighth.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 23.—Chicago outplayed Cleveland in every department of the first game of the three game series that is supposed to settle the American League championship, winning today's game, 10 to 3.

Cleveland errors allowed Chicago to take the lead in the Kerr was very effective until the eighth, when Cleveland bunched two hits and two passes, scoring two runs. The Indians' first run was due to an error by Risberg.

"I will do it while I am alive," said George Wardrop as he presented his old family residence, worth $15,000, to the Melbourne Association, in memory of his daughter. This building, with its spacious grounds, will provide a home for forty boys between the ages of 14 and 18 coming to Melbourne for employment. The Melbourne Association has a property worth $150,000 and will attempt to raise $300,000 to build a modern up-to-date building.

Boudoir talks with Sybel on how cocoa butter helps a tender skin

Every change in weather affects a tender skin. It burns in summer and chaps in winter. Sybel is real authority on such troubles and she says:

"A tender skin must be well nourished for weather extremes dry up all its natural moisture. Cocoa butter is the recognized skin food and Coco-Bloom—my cocoa butter cream—is cocoa butter combined with other ingredients beneficial to the skin.

"Rub the Coco-Bloom in until it is entirely absorbed—then wipe the face with a coarse towel and powder well. This simple treatment soon produces a normal condition and you can brave any kind of weather extremes.

"Remember, Coco-Bloom is cocoa butter cream, and it supplies exactly what is needed to make your skin healthy."

TRUTONA GIVES QUINCY WOMAN READY RELIEF

Mrs. Wiggins States That Perfect Tonic Straightened Out Her Whole System.

Quincy, Ill. — "I'm glad to recommend Trutona, to Illinois people, for it has practically made a new woman of me," Mrs. H. B. Wiggins, a resident of Quincy for the past fourteen years, who lives at 443 South Fifth street, recently told a Trutona representative.

"I had become so nervous, that it was next to impossible for me to sleep," she continued. "I suffered such knife like pains in my back, from kidney trouble, also, I never seemed to care for anything to eat."

"I had tried many different kinds of medicines, but I got no relief, until I began using Trutona. But I simply feel 100 per cent better, since taking this wonderful medicine. My former nervousness is improved very much. I know that as I'm sleeping so much better at night, now, I hardly notice the pains in my back, anymore. In fact, the Perfect Tonic, has strengthened and straightened out my whole system. The wonderful medicine has just made a new woman of Trutona is sold in Jacksonville at Coover Drug Co., J. F. Shreve Drug Co.; in Franklin at Wyle Drug Co.; and also Waverly at Co.—Adv.

EX-SHERIFF IS OUT WITH FACTS

Says Biggest Surprise of His Life Was the Way Tanlac Restored Wife's Health.

"I just wish you could hear my wife praise Tanlac, and I am no less grateful than she is for her wonderful recovery, recently declared Peter Miller, a prominent farmer living at Little's, Ind., R. F. D. 14, ex-Sheriff of Pike county.

"For fifteen years she hardly knew a well day was, and was on the flat of her back two-thirds of the time. She couldn't eat solid food of any kind without suffering severe pain afterwards. She suffered with dreadful headaches and her nerves were so shattered that she couldn't rest at night and for years she hadn't been able to do any work around the house and thought she could not live much longer.

"I never had anything equal to the surprise I got when Tanlac overcame all my wife's troubles and changed her into a strong and healthy woman. Tanlac seemed to soothe her stomach and give her an appetite, and within a short time she was up and around the house. She has gained so much in weight that her friends hardly know her. She eats three meals a day and is so much stronger that she insists on doing a big share of the housework, while only a short time ago she couldn't even cross the room by herself. I have spent thousands of dollars for other medicines and treatment, but my wife's health has been restored by Tanlac at a cost almost too small to mention."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co., J. F. Shreve Drug Co., and the leading drug store in every town.—Adv.

The City of Churches saw nearly 100,000 Sunday school pupils parade on Brooklyn's annual Sunday school "field day" this summer. There were 26 different parades. The festival is a Brooklyn custom that dates back nearly a century.

There are 800,000 pupils in attendance in the Philippine public schools. Luther B. Bewley is director and Camillo Osias, a Filipino, first assistant. Both are Protestants and Osias is a member of the Manila Central Methodist church. Three million children have come into contact with the schools since United States occupancy, resulting in a decrease of illiteracy from ninety-five to thirty per cent.

"I will do it while I am alive," said George Wardrop as he presented his old family residence, worth $15,000, to the Melbourne Association, in memory of his daughter. This building, with its spacious grounds, will provide a home for forty boys between the ages of 14 and 18 coming to Melbourne for employment. The Melbourne Association has a property worth $150,000 and will attempt to raise $300,000 to build a modern up-to-date building.

When Temptation Appeals, Smash It!

Temptation is as familiar to man as clothes, and its nearness has cloaked its close kinship to sin. Many believe that to court temptation just to resist it steals human will. This is fallacy, as Dr. Wiley shows in this message, which bites with cold truth:

Temptation consciously sought means more than half surrender. The man who walks into temptation has to run to escape sin.

Temptation courted is flirtation with sin.

Avoiding temptation is not cowardly; warding it off is often harder than shunning sin.

The Christian, young or old, needs to learn that there is no virtue in living on the verge of vice.

Playing with clever temptation may make a moral juggler, but the fine fiber of a healthy soul plays with the dumb-bells of duty and the Indian clubs of decision.

Sin is quick to catch anchor where temptation finds a port.

Do You Know

—That a tire dealer often makes a larger profit on the sale of a cheap tire than he makes on a good one?

—When you stop to consider the difference in the price to you between cheap tires and good ones that certainly indicates an even greater difference in the price to the dealer, and the manufacturer who makes the cheap tire cannot afford to build it of anything but cheap material.

—A price bargain therefore is nothing more or less than the name indicates. The only time it costs you less is at the actual moment of purchase. You cannot reasonably expect to get as much for your money when you buy goods made of cheap material, as when you get the best.

—We sell GOODYEAR TIRES and TUBES because they represent true economy. Last year and the year before more people rode on GOODYEAR TIRES than on any other kind. It's the same this year. It will be true next year and the year after.

RUBE BENTON SAYS CHASE WON $40,000

New York Herald Discusses Testimony with Newspaper Men Before Going Into Grand Jury Room.

Chicago, Sept. 23. — Jacob (Rube) Benton, pitcher of the New York Nationals today told newspapermen previously to testifying before the grand jury which is investigating charges of baseball gambling, that "Hal" Chase, former member of the New York Nationals, made approximately $40,000 by placing "wise bets" on world's series games.

Benton was the chief witness at today's session, having come here from New York in response to a subpoena issued several days ago. Before entering the jury room he said Chase and Charles "Buck" Herzog, of the Chicago Nationals had offered him some "easy money" if he would throw a game between the Chicago and the New York National League clubs.

Later Benton told newspapermen that the substance of the testimony given to the grand jury was as follows:

That Hal Chase had cleared approximately $40,000 by betting on world's series games;

That he (Benton) has been offered some "easy money" by Chase and Herzog if he would "throw" a certain game between the Cubs and Giants; and

That Henry Zimmerman, former member of the Giants, had called Benton a "poor fish" and declared that "four hundred bucks were awaiting" for him had he thrown the game.

Herzog vehemently denied the charges of the New York pitcher. To newspapermen Benton declared that "he did not know of any cases of out and out crookedness," but said, "I do know that just before the final game between the Giants and the Cubs, Herzog, Chase and myself held a conference at which I was asked if I wanted to make 'some easy money.'"

"I was then informed that I was to throw the final game to Chicago," Benton said that he joked with the men and then went out and won the game.

Benton's testimony before the grand jury was short. He was temporarily excused from the stand but was told that he probably would be called again.

The ball sped true, rolled to the flagstick and dropped into the cup. It was the first time he had holed out in a single stroke.

The use of Drecto, the great herb medicine, tends to restore the appetite, to procure natural digestion, which is followed by an increased circulation and nourishment of the whole body. Lean, haggard, bloodless people begin to gain weight, strength and flesh at once by taking Drecto, as they themselves declare in signed testimonials.

"Before taking Drecto, everything I ate went right thru me just as I ate it and I didn't seem to get any benefit from my food which kept me hungry all the time," said Mr. Joseph Krieger, who is employed by the Illinois Zinc Co., and lives at 6 LaSalle St., La Salle, Ill.

"I spent many restless nights' rolling and tossing about awakening in the morning just about as tired as when I went to bed. Was so full of bile that my head spun around like a top and black specks shifted up and down before my eyes. Half digested food massed up in my bowels and refused to pass out making me very uncomfortable and producing nausea."
